

FROM: Port Macquarie City Men's Bowling Club

DATE: Week ending Sunday 30th October 2016

The home of the Port City Koalas

Dress code for social bowls is club uniform/creams or clean smart casual, with collared shirt and neat shorts/slacks.

Bowls Facebook page – have your say!

A reminder that Port City greens and spectator areas are smoke free.

In the mixed pairs 2016 Championship final, Kylie Hardy/Phil Baker overcame Joey Judge/Betty Hodgson 22-14 to take out the title.

The men's minor pairs for Championship final for 2016 was also played with Eddie Smith and Don Ramsay defeating Steve Matheson and Paul Jacobson 25-20. Paul subbed for Callum Murray who was unavailable.

The mixed fours Championship for 2016, nominations close 31 October, and the draw will be on the board this week.

There will be mixed bowls on Melbourne Cup day starting at 9.30. Dress is casual.

Pennants 2017. Intending players are requested to complete the "Pennant Nomination Form" (available on the notice board), and hand the completed form to our bowls coordinator.

An update and correction in last week's report regarding Ricky Holt. Ricky played at Port City on Thursday 27th October and is raising money for Cystic Fibrosis and Autism. I believe over $1200 was raised on the day. Ricky will be playing 50 games of bowls at 50 different clubs over 50 days. He started at his home club of Merimbula- Imlay and will finish on November 30th at Albury

There is a book at the club "Life and Soul of bowls down" under by Ross Thompson. For all you grey nomads who have travelled a bit, it is a very interesting read. Contact myself or Phil if you would like to borrow the book.

Don't forget the men's meat raffle every Friday, tickets available from 5pm with the draw at 7pm. Ask for our special deals when buying tickets. Meat trays are proudly supplied by Wiggly Tail Butchery.

Remember to check out "latest bowls news" blog for news and happenings at clubs around our district. Also bowls tab on the Port City web site

Free coaching is available on Saturday and Sunday mornings (bowls provided). Contact the bowls office for details
