

Port City Men's Bowling Club

May Newsletter 2015-05-06

Looking forward, looking back (apologies to Slim Dusty)

Some highlights from April

- Minor Pairs Championship, Matty Bayes/Mitch McCann defeated Dale Smith/Dave Moxon 18-17
- A very successful Easter Carnival, despite the Saturday wash out.
- Callum Murray in the zone 14 juniors (under 18) reached the finals of the singles, pairs and fours.
- Sunday mixed triples introduced a sausage sizzle/hot dog prior to the game

May

- Major pairs first round to be played on or before 10th May.
- 2 bowl handicap triples 12th May to 14th May.
- Entries still open for grade 6 and 7 2 bowl triples to be played 19th June to 21st June
- We are proposing to hold another Aust V ROTW, possibly May 30th also to co- incide in beating the price increase, green fees to rise to $8 on June 1st.

Pennants:

Some disruption to games this year due to wet weather. We are now approaching the pointy end of the season with grades 1, 7/1 and 7/2 in contention.

A big thank you to our sponsors. Our weekly sponsors during April were:- Graham Bayes Funerals, Front Row Advice, Lesley Williams, David Gillespie and Port City Realty. In May our weekly sponsors are:- Ditchfield Dental, Towers Painting, Jax Tyres and Greg Keft Electical.

This is my first attempt at a monthly newsletter. If any members would like to contribute with humourous bowls related stories, you can email me at colh1941@gmail.com

“ A health tip”- Take your heart for a walk every day.

Cheers
