PRESIDENT DEB'S BITS & PIECES

A smile brightens the darkest of days

If you can't say something nice about someone don't say anything at all.

CLUB REFURBISHMENT

Ladies please try to be patient with the club changes. I'm sure all will be lovely when it all comes together.

A wonderful start to Spring, all bowlers enjoying the beautiful weather before summer arrives. Daffodil day was a success, raising $709 for the Cancer Council.

We now have two wonderful sponsors for our club Shirts. LAKE ROAD  DENTAL and BROADWATER GARDENS. Carol White has the sample of the shirts for you to try on and cast your eye over. Orders need to be in by 30th September.

CLUB COMPETITIONS

Major/Minor is well under way 1st team through to the finals is Margaret Doyle and Kylie Hardy (New Bowler). Carol White (Skip) plays Denise Gudgeon (Skip) the winner going on to play Judy Scholz for a place in the finals.

Minor Pairs has started Barbara Owens and Lyn Norton (New bowler) winning in the 1st round. More games scheduled for 8th September, Tuesday.

Minor Singles is now open, President Debbie hoped all Minors, including new bowlers will enter. Entries close 15th September, Tuesday.
