

Port City Men's Bowling Club

February Newsletter- 11th February 2016

It's great to see participation rates are holding up very well, despite a number of washed out days

Congratulations to the winners of the club fours championship 2016, the team skipped by Danny Barrett

As I write this, the club triples championship 2016 is about to start. Good luck to all teams.

Entries are open for the minor singles championship.

Australia day saw the next edition in the series, Australia V Rest of the World, which was won by ROTW.

The inaugural out of the hat pairs on the first Thursday in February was a great success with 58 bowlers participating. We will continue to do this in the coming months.

The Monday open singles will again be held on 29th February. This will be the last one for a while, over the pennant season.

In house pennant trial this Saturday 13th February, with the last trial on Tuesday 23rd, which will include a BBQ for all grades.

Geoff Mitchell and Bryce Stewart have kindly offered their services for pennant coaching on Tuesday afternoons after ladies bowls.

The new season of Corporate Jack Attack starts on Friday 19th and runs for 5 weeks.

I believe consideration is being given to upgrade the half green to a competition standard 3 rink green, which will allow Port City to hold stand alone events such as state pennant finals etc.
